Our Top Picks

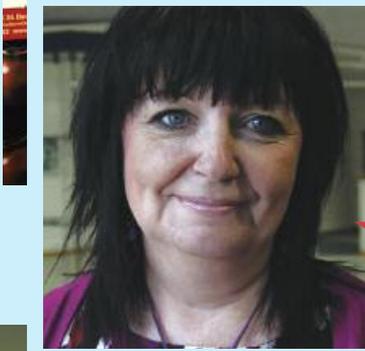

After 17 years at Carnegie Hall, I am retiring in December but I'm coming back to see the wonderful Aled Jones here in March.

Janice, Box Office, Carnegie Hall

I'm looking forward to a right good laugh as one of Scotland's sharpest-mouthed comedy treasures Kathleen Ruddy - she plays it like she's devoured a young Una Mclean - descends on Scotland this Spring in The Devil Wears Primark.

Evan, Programmer

I'm delighted to welcome Scottish Opera back to Lochgelly Centre with their new production for toddlers, KidO.

Verdi, Programmer

Check out our new website at www.onlife.com. Phase 1 was launched in November and you can find and book events as well as new services such as FREE digital magazines through our Libraries. Museums collections and more are coming in Phase 2 in February. We would love to know what you think and what more you would like to see so let us know at www.youtellus.co.uk

Rory, Digital Marketing

For me, the highlight has to be the first ever ARTIST ROOMS exhibition at Kirkcaldy Galleries. I am absolutely thrilled to be able to bring the work of the American photographer Diane Arbus to Fife - the only place you can see her work in the UK.

Treasure Island

Robert Louis Stevenson's story of murder, money and mutiny is brought to life in a thrilling new stage adaptation by Bryony Lavery. It's a dark, stormy night. The stars are out. Jim, the inn-keeper's granddaughter, opens the door to a terrifying stranger. At the old sailor's feet sits a huge sea-chest, full of secrets. Jim invites him in – and her dangerous voyage begins.

National Theatre Encore
John

From the internationally renowned DV8 Physical Theatre comes John, a production which combines movement and spoken word to create an intense and moving theatrical experience. Lloyd Newson, DV8's Artistic Director, interviewed more than 50 men asking them frank questions about love and sex. One of those men was John. What emerged was a story that is both extraordinary and touching. Years of crime, drug use and struggling to survive lead John on a search in which his life converges with others, in an unexpected place.

Behind the Beautiful Forevers

India is surging with global ambition. But beyond the luxury hotels surrounding Mumbai airport lies a makeshift slum, full of people with dreams of their own. Zehrunisa and her son Abdul aim to recycle enough rubbish to fund a proper house. Sunil, twelve and stunted, wants to eat until he's as tall as Kalu the thief. Asha seeks to steal government anti-poverty funds to turn herself into a 'first-class person', while her daughter Manju intends to become the slum's first female graduate. But another slum-dweller is about to make an accusation that will shatter the neighbourhood.

The Hard Problem

Acclaimed playwright Tom Stoppard (Shakespeare in Love, Arcadia) returns to the National Theatre with his highly-anticipated new play The Hard Problem, directed by Nicholas Hytner (Othello, One Man, Two Guvvners).

Hilary, a young psychology researcher at a brain science institute, is nursing a private sorrow and a troubling question. If there is nothing but matter, what is consciousness? This is 'the hard problem' which puts Hilary at odds with her colleagues. Is the day coming when the computer and the fMRI scanner will answer all the questions psychology can ask?

THUR 14 MAY | 7PM | 12A

Man and Superman

Academy Award® nominee Ralph Fiennes (The English Patient, Oedipus at the National Theatre) plays Jack Tanner in this exhilarating reinvention of Shaw's witty, provocative classic. A romantic comedy, a fiery philosophical debate, Man and Superman asks fundamental questions about how we live.

Jack Tanner, celebrated radical thinker and rich bachelor, seems an unlikely choice as guardian to the alluring heiress, Ann. But she takes it in her assured stride and, despite the love of a poet, she decides to marry and tame this dazzling revolutionary Tanner. Appalled by the whiff of domesticity, he flees to Spain, where he is captured by bandits and meets The Devil.

RUBBER EAR PRODUCTIONS

Well known playwright, writer, director and actress, Kathleen Ruddy returns with a subject all women will recognise; the mother-in-law.

The Devil Wears Primark is a comedy, centred around an unbalanced London Greek-Cypriot family coming together to 'celebrate' the imminent award of an MBE for their controlling matriarch. However, things are not quite as they seem for Athenoulla Georgiou; her husband was a closet cross-dresser with post-war traumatic stress disorder, her daughter can barely communicate and her vengeful prodigal son flaunts a Turkish travelling circus performer in front of her in an effort to try and push the entire dysfunctional mess right over the edge.

A guaranteed great night out for daughter-in-laws everywhere!

BORDERLINE THEATRE COMPANY AND HIRTLE PRODUCTIONS

THE STRAW CHAIR

Award-winning Borderline Theatre and Hirtle revive Sue Glover's captivating play about liberty and lost love for its first Scottish tour since 1988.

In the eighteenth century, it's a stormy start to marriage for seventeen year old Isabel and her minister husband Aneas, arriving from Edinburgh onto the remote island of Hirta (St Kilda). Amongst the inhabitants lives Lady Grange, who appals and fascinates Isabel with her stories of betrayal and abduction. While Isabel uncovers alarming similarities between them, Lady Grange clings to the two things she has left in the world - a consuming rage and an old straw chair.

"A beguiling combination of things, starting with the incredible story of Lady Grange, banished by her husband to the remoteness of St Kilda. Hung around this framework is an evocation, as light and sharp as spindrift, of the strange life on the island."

ARTIST ROOMS: Diane Arbus

14 February - 31 May 2015

In its first ever ARTIST ROOMS exhibition, Kirkcaldy Galleries is thrilled to present the work of leading American photographer Diane Arbus (1923 - 71). Famous for photographing individuals marginalised by society, Arbus refused to take pictures of her subjects in ways that people wanted to see them, challenging concepts of identity, beauty and normality. Her unapologetic approach to photography revealed the complexities of human nature and relationships, making the ordinary extraordinary and the misunderstood familiar.

The Galleries will explore how her work reflected the social, political and economic changes taking place throughout the United States from the 1950s - 70s. Featuring twenty of her seminal pieces, this exhibition and associated events will highlight how Arbus' work and photographic technique challenge the viewer to see beyond the shocking to the complexities of each individual subject.

CARNEGIE YOUTH THEATRE

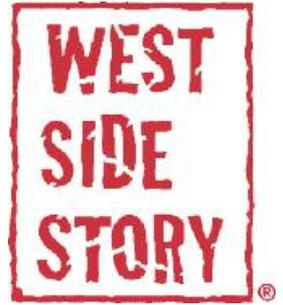

WEST SIDE STORY

The world's greatest love story takes to the streets in this landmark Broadway musical that is one of the theatre's finest accomplishments. Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet is transported to modern-day New York City, as two young idealistic lovers find themselves caught between warring street gangs, the 'American' Jets and the Puerto Rican Sharks. Their struggle to survive in a world of hate, violence and prejudice is one of the most innovative, heart-wrenching and relevant musical dramas of our time. Famous songs include Tonight, Maria, I Feel Pretty, Somewhere and America.

Based on a conception of Jerome Robbins, Book by Arthur Laurents, Music by Leonard Bernstein, Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim
Entire original production directed and choreographed by Jerome Robbins

Originally produced on Broadway by Robert E. Griffith & Harold Prince by arrangement with Roger L. Stevens

This amateur production is presented by arrangement with JOSEF WEINBERGER LIMITED on behalf of MUSIC THEATRE INTERNATIONAL of NEW YORK.

WHATEVER THE WEATHER

Created and Directed by Gilly Baskeyfield

M6 Theatre Company's imaginative new production for the very young is set in the charming world of a traditional Alpine weather house. This quaint ornament tells us what weather to expect today. When the little woman comes out it's going to be sunny! When the little man comes out it's going to rain! The two characters couldn't be more different.

But what happens when the winds of change blow? Blow so hard that everything becomes topsy-turvy? What will our lovable pair learn in their new and unfamiliar conditions? It might rain, it might get a bit windy, but the show must go on whatever the weather!

all

Based on Lewis Carroll's nonsense poem.

An evil prince is ruining the kingdom. He taxes the people something rotten! To make matters worse, a plague of monsters has descended on the poor, benighted people. Something has to be done!

It falls to Quentin (somewhat gormless) to track and slay the Jabberwock. If only he had heeded his father's warnings. But then Quentin is doing it all for his beloved Cynthia.

But the prince has designs of his own on the beautiful Cynthia. Will Quentin survive his quest? Will the prince marry Cynthia? Or will the fearsome Jabberwock eat the whole kingdom? So begins the riotous story of The Jabberwocky. Told by a traveling storyteller in an attractive and simple style the show is ideal for children of all ages.

HYPERTENSION MUSIC PROUDLY PRESENT ALBERT HAMMOND

Albert Hammond has been writing hit songs for over forty years. Since the 1960s there has not been a single decade in which Albert has not written multiple hit songs. He scored his first hit with Little Arrows (recorded by Leapy Lee) in 1968 at the age of 24. His songs have been responsible for the sale of over 360 million records worldwide including over 30 chart-topping hits.

Many of his most beloved songs, such as It Never Rains in California, The Air That I Breathe and When I Need You, have become hits multiple times with various artists, decade after decade. Whitney Houston's One Moment in Time became a worldwide anthem.

This is two hours of outstanding popular music with Albert and his band performing his own hits and those who became hits for countless top recording stars.

69 SHADES OF BLACK

Former Steps band member Faye Tozer stars in this adult comedy responding to the erotic Fifty Shades of Grey.

Boring, vanilla, Horlicks' swiller William Shight's most interesting trait has always been his snigger inducing name. Up until now that is! Since landing his dream job at one of the country's top advertising agencies, things have taken a cheeky turn for the shocking. Christina Black, the company director, has taken a shine to our William and attempts to seduce him with an indecent proposal.

Willy tries in vain to resist but in the end relents and signs a 69 page contract, the one Christina intends to use to make a man out of him! The 20 pages of "don't" and 49 pages of "do whatever the hell I want" leads William on a hilariously painful journey of a lifetime.

This riotous new comedy has a whip cracking script that promises to leave you wincing and laughing in all the right places.

SCOTTISH OPERA

KidO

Building on the success of BabyO and SensoryO, their much-loved productions for babies and toddlers, Scottish Opera's new show for 3-4 year olds and their carers is fast paced and full of fun. Directed by acclaimed children's theatre director Lu Kemp, and with music by Katy Lavinia Cooper, KidO leads audiences into a world of sound and rhythm where anything can happen.

Encouraging play and make-believe, KidO takes the infinite possibilities of a cardboard box and a healthy dose of imagination and makes the everyday extraordinary. The show features a mix of live singing, opera and specially written music, and uses vocal and body percussion to create exciting rhythms and build up words in the blink of an eye.

THE DIRE STRAITS EXPERIENCE

It has been more than 35 years since the opening line of Sultans Of Swing was first heard around the world. Over 20 years have passed since Dire Straits disbanded, leaving a catalogue of some of the finest compositions and musical performances that the heyday of rock ever produced.

The Dire Straits Experience began its evolution as The Straits in 2011, performing a sold-out charity event at Royal Albert Hall to ecstatic acclaim. That intended one-off has since snowballed by popular demand to traverse the UK and USA, leaving a trail of superlatives equal to the most celebrated arena artists of our time and a catalogue of the greatest rock tunes of our time.

And so it is that these songs, in all their ambition, grandeur and aching beauty, are once again presented live for the fans that have kept them alive. Don't miss it!
