introductions

That's Fife, the Kingdom's side-splitting comedy festival, is back, and it's once again packed with national and international stars. The Festival, in its second year, is staged across the region, from Carnegie Hall in the West to our friends The Byre in the East, and I'm sure you will agree that we've got Fife covered for comedy and laughter this April!

This year, we're working with Gilded Balloon, who are one of the biggest venues at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe. The Gilded Balloon's 30 years programming expertise has added to the range and quality of acts. We will also be presenting some classic comedy films old and new, including The Lavender Hill Mob and Dad's Army. We guarantee there's something for everyone.

A special thanks go to Go Glenrothes, who have contributed greatly to the funding of the Festival, and Fife Council's Strategic Events Programme. Both of these contributions are essential in allowing us to stage a Festival of this stature in Fife. Not forgetting our team at Fife Cultural Trust, of course, working away behind the scenes throughout the year to support our wide-ranging programme that includes a host of comedy gigs and much more besides.

What are you waiting for? Join us for That's Fife, the comedy festival making April a right good laugh this year and every year!!!

Evan Henderson
Festival Director

We are delighted to be collaborating with Fife Cultural Trust to bring That's Fife Comedy Festival to theatres near you.

The Gilded Balloon has been presenting comedy at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe for over 30 years and now move across the Forth to bring to Fife big names like Ed Byrne, Ardal O'Hanlon and Nina Conti.

Our, That's Fife Comedy Gala will be back again this year with Grant Stott, Fred MacAulay and Scott Gibson to showcase some of the best acts from across the festival for one spectacular evening of entertainment. Not to mention our opening night performance of, An Audience with Dorothy Paul featuring the Scottish acting icon herself.

There's something a little bit different in store for all the family with the anarchic, comedy cooking show from George Egg, Funbox and the magical stylings of Kevin McMahon and Morgan & West.

We're also offering young Fifers the chance to try their hand at stand-up in our Class Clowns comedy newcomer competition for young aspiring comedians. Join in or come along to support the next generation of local superstars!

For a festival experience that'll have you howling with laughter throughout the month of April, we look forward to welcoming you all to That's Fife 2016!

Karen Koren

Fife Comedy Circuit

Saturday 2 April | 20:00 | £12 / £11 concs

Al Porter, Stuart Mitchell, Andrea Hubert & Scott Gibson

The Gilded Balloon Comedy Circuit is LIVE and ready to electrify your funny bones with some high voltage entertainment! Fresh from the new series of BBC's Live at the Apollo ('Only 22 but he owns the room like a pro twice his age' – The Scotsman) Al Porter joins Stuart Mitchell ('Rising star of the comedy circuit' – The Scotsman), Andrea Hubert ('Her slick, fluid set is rich with inventive, sarcastic gags' – Chortle) and emcee, Scott Gibson ('A natural, gifted storyteller' – Frankie Boyle) for a riotous evening of comedy antics to kick-start your Saturday night!

Kevin McMahon: Quantum Magic

Friday 15th April | 20:00 | £15 / £12.50 concs

State-of-the-art magic fused with incredible science, from the scientist-turned-magician who was tutored by Penn and Teller.

Having spent the first ten years of his adult life studying Physics and the next ten studying magic, Member of the Magic Circle Kevin McMahon explores the exotic space where science and magic meet. Have your thoughts projected into reality, witness an impossible levitation from inches away and have your most valued possession teleported across stage.

Amazing magic, stunning science.

'epic stunts, genuinely impressive magic'  BroadwayBaby.com

George Egg: Anarchist Cook

Saturday 16th April | 20:00 | £10

One man. One hour. Three courses. Comedian George Egg is also a fanatical cook with an anarchic approach to making meals. Finding himself dissatisfied with the quality of hotel room service while touring the comedy clubs of the world, George embarks on a project to take matters into his own surprisingly capable hands. Come see him serve up a surreal and absurd mix of stand-up comedy and striking innovation, in an unforgettable demonstration of extreme multitasking.

Total sell-out Brighton Fringe 2014 & Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2015, Best Comedy Show nominee Brighton Fringe 2014.

Ardal O'Hanlon with support from Michael Redmond

Friday 22nd April | 20:00 | £17.50

Award winning comedian, actor and writer Ardal O'Hanlon continues to be one of the most sought after comedians working today, with TV stand up credits including: Live at The Apollo and Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow. Ardal's extensive TV acting credits include the forthcoming Sky comedy-drama After Hours; Cucumber; London Irish; Doctor Who; Skins; My Hero – and of course, Father Ted. A highly acclaimed stand up, Ardal has toured to sell out audiences internationally.

As an extra added bonus the show will also feature a performance from master of deadpan delivery, Michael Redmond, who some of you may recognise as Father Ted legend, Father Stone.

Eric & Ern

Saturday 30th April | 20:00 | £15.00

Brand new show 'Eric and Ern' captures the brilliance of Morecambe & Wise in this outstanding homage to two of Britain's best loved performers. Straight from the Olivier nominated, West End hit 'Eric and Little Ern', Ian Ashpitel and Jonty Stephens perform stand up, songs, dances, sketches and routines which will take you back to a world of sunshine and laughter. A show full of Morecambe and Wise's most loved routines. You'll feel you've seen the real thing.

'You have the giddy out-of-time illusion that you are watching the legendary double-act live' The Independent

'What an impressive act of comedy necromancy this is. The real Morecambe and Wise will never again strut their stuff on stage. In their absence, it's hard to imagine a sweeter substitute than Jonty Stephens and Ian Ashpitel' The Times

'I never thought I would see Morecambe and Wise live. I think I just have!' Ben Elton

An Audience with Dorothy Paul

Friday 1st April | 20:00 | £20

For ONE NIGHT ONLY, Scottish acting magnate Dave Anderson (Still Game, Taggart, Soldier Soldier, Doctor Who, Gregory's Girl) hosts An Audience with Dorothy Paul. That's right ladies and gentleman, from one local legend to another, Dave will be at the helm of the evening's proceedings as stage and screen icon, Dorothy Paul (River City, Still Game, Taggart, The One O'Clock Gang) recounts the highs and lows of life in the footlights!

From humble beginnings at the Kraft Cheese factory to the stage, big screen and beyond, our 'Grand Dame of Scots Theatre' Daily Record shares her story with us which is as captivating as it is entertaining.

Join Dorothy as you've never seen her before for this special event marking the opening of That's Fife Comedy Festival!

That's Fife Comedy Gala

Hosted by Scott Gibson, featuring Fred MacAulay, Grant Stott and Kevin McMahon

Saturday 9th April | 20:00 | £17.50

Where the best in comedy and entertainment meet for a one-night spectacular; That's Fife.

Where Fred MacAulay (Rib achingly funny. One of the funniest men alive - The Sunday Times), Forth One DJ, Grant Stott (Tall. Scottish. Daftie - Himself), Kevin McMahon (Astonishing - Evening News) and Scott Gibson (The best act to emerge from Scotland in years - Des Clarke) perform an eclectic mix of stand-up, magic and variety performance; That's Fife.

Where you KNOW you'll have a jam-packed, laugh out loud evening featuring the best talent on the scene; That's Fife.

The Gala you should buy your tickets for while you still can because an event like this only comes around once a year; That's Fife.

Nina Conti

Saturday 16th April | 20:00 | £17.50

She's won a British Comedy Award, stormed Live at the Apollo, Russell Howard's Good News, Sunday Night at the Palladium, and made a BAFTA nominated film – all without moving her lips. Nina creates a new show each night by plucking inspiration from the audience. Strap into the mask as Nina gets in your face. With the help of Monkey and a bag of tricks, truly anything can happen in this unmissable improvised adventure of hilarious witchery.

*'Uproariously hilarious' * The Scotsman*

'Nina Conti is a genius' The Mirror

'A gem ... funny, poignant, novel' The Guardian

Morgan & West Utterly Spiffing Spectacular Magic Show for Kids (and Childish Grown-ups!)

Sunday 17th April | 15:00 | £10

Time travelling Victorian magic duo Morgan & West unload another boxful of bafflement and impossibility. Witness a mountain of mysterious magic, a hatful of hyper-reality, and of course a truck full of tricks and tea. (Sadly there are no actual mountains or trucks on stage during the show, Mr West simply would not have them.)

Mixing brain busting illusion and good old fashioned tomfoolery, Morgan & West present a show for all the family, where magic and silliness abound! Fun for all from ages 5 to 105*.

*105 is rather an arbitrary upper age limit really – it just seemed to flow well in the prose...
