Welcome

As Summer comes to an end (those 3 days we had!) and we start to look forward to the Autumn and Christmas periods, I am delighted to introduce these superb shows, events and exhibitions from Fife Cultural Trust. There truly is something for everyone to enjoy and brighten the darker nights.

Across our theatres, music fans are in for a real treat with Lesley Garrett, Showaddywaddy, The Rubettes, Jimmy Webb and Midge Ure to name but a few. Our dramas will have you rolling in the aisles with DC Thomson's The Broons, hiding behind your seat with Black-Eyed Theatre's brand new adaptation of Frankenstein, embroiled in the political intrigue with Michael Frayne's award winning play, Democracy, (making it's Scottish debut with an all-star cast including Taggart's Colin McCreadie) and feeling inspired by our co-production with Wee Stories, The Man Who Followed His Legs.

Kirkcaldy Film Festival 16 celebrates A Century of Cinema, from silent shorts to brand-new blockbusters.

Our libraries will become Fun Palaces for a weekend in October with lots of activities for both children and adults and, at the end of November, we celebrate Book Week Scotland with a great programme of author events and activities for all ages.

Nostalgia, dance, glass soldiers, archaeological finds, Fife artists and the Forth Bridges are only a few of the subjects covered in the exhibitions across our Museums and Galleries. All of these exhibitions are free to attend.

And of course we are looking forward to our new Christmas shows. With everyone's favourite family pantomime, Cinderella at Adam Smith Theatre and a sparkling new production for 3-6 year olds - Moon Dog and the Christmas Star at Carnegie Hall, Christmas at Fife Cultural Trust promises something special for all our families. Book soon to avoid disappointment!

There's so much ON to enjoy - we hope to see you soon.

Naming a Seat is a great way to ensure your legacy lives on or to honour someone special in your life. Perhaps it's for celebrating a new arrival to the family, an anniversary or wedding gift or giving someone a unique present that cements your love for them and for the Theatre.

By naming a seat for £150, you can be proud to support the arts and culture scene in Fife knowing that your money is being reinvested into Fife Cultural Trust, so future generations can enjoy the theatre just as much and for years to come. For £250 we can offer 2 seats side by side so that you are never too far away from your loved one.

Our Top Picks

The team at Imagine are delighted to be working with the team at Adam Smith Theatre to deliver the most magical and spectacular panto Cinderella. Our designers and builders are creating a truly magical show for the audiences of Kirkcaldy, Fife and beyond. Without giving too much away, there will be loads of fun, beautiful scenery and costumes and a magical transformation scene where Cinderella will literally fly to the ball in her fairy coach. It takes a full year to plan the panto and we can't wait to bring the show to Fife this Christmas.

Steve and Sarah Boden, Imagine Theatre

I'm really delighted to be bringing Moon Dog to Carnegie Hall. This is an exciting, innovative piece of theatre which I hope will be the start of a new Christmas tradition, making beautiful, intimate stories for young children and their families. We have a great team working on the show and I know it's going to be truly magical. My own wee daughters are already very excited about meeting a puppy from space.

Francis Gallop – Creator of Moon Dog

As a lover of opera, I'm excited to see that Lesley Garrett is coming to Carnegie Hall this Autumn. It will be great to be able to go along to a theatre on my doorstep to enjoy listening to this world-famous singer. I will also be encouraging my friends and family to come along and support Fife Opera, who are performing Tchaikovsky's masterpiece, Eugene Onegin at Adam Smith Theatre in November.

Maggie Gray, Service Development Team Leader, Libraries (Young People)

I am really excited about the launch of our new, free eBook and eAudiobook service. It's so easy! Download the free app for your device to get browsing and borrowing from a huge spread of authors! All you need is your library membership to be able to borrow eBooks and eAudiobooks for free from Fife libraries 24/7. Find out all about it at onfife.com

Christine Cook, Service Development Officer, Libraries

While growing up in Fife, I fell in love with theatre and went to see as many theatrical performances as possible. Naming a seat is a wonderful way to show your support and passion for the arts and culture scene across the Kingdom. Theatre is an imperative part of society...

Joanne's debut album White Sugar first opened the door and Joanne's career has since gone stratospheric, with her breaking the notoriously hard-to-crack US market. Subsequent albums; Diamonds in the Dirt, Almost Always Never and Songs From The Road followed and saw Joanne's fan base rise globally.

A Fife Contemporary Art & Craft Touring Exhibition, presented in association with Lateral Lab. Robert Callender's (1932-2011) work results from his intense focus on the coast and a love of boats. Small sculpture and reliefs demonstrate his magical re-creation of beachcombed items which reflect the changes to the coastal environment brought about by human actions. Also featured is a special boxed publication, A2B, full of images, film and text introducing the ideas and inspiration underlying the artist's work

I LOVE TO BOOGIE WITH T.REXTASY

Marc Bolan, with his band T.Rex, was one of the most flamboyant and charismatic stars of the original glam rock era. With Bolan's special ingredient of Rock-a-Boogie songs throughout the 1970s including Telegram Sam and Jeepster, he was able to obtain what would be yet another Top 20 record in 1976 that has since become one of the most memorable and everlasting signature tunes, I Love to Boogie.

T.Rextasy have now been performing around the world for over 20 years, a career that ironically out lives Marc's very own T.Rex. The band is now accepted as the world's only official live tribute band dedicated to Marc Bolan & T.Rex, and the only band endorsed and approved by Marc Bolan's family, estate, original ex-members of T.Rex, and Bolan's catalogue management. The band has been described by many as 'beyond the boundaries of tribute'.

ALISON KINNAIRD INSTALLATION

Alison Kinnaird has an international reputation as an artist working in glass. Her installation is of glass figures, many of them soldiers nearly half a metre tall, each one engraved differently. The work is her response to the present state of conflict in so many parts of the world, and the fact that we never seem to learn from the experiences of the past. Making references to the Terracotta Army of the Chinese Emperors, the installation has been touring the country in association with Poppy Scotland.

Comments from visitors

EXQUISITE CORPSE

A SELECTION OF WORKS FROM THE SCOTTISH SOCIETY OF ARTISTS

Exquisite corpse (cadavre exquis, the original French term) is a method by which words or images are collectively assembled, each collaborator adding to a composition in sequence. The technique was invented by surrealists and is similar to an old parlour game called Consequences.

The exhibition has been curated by Katharine Aarrestad and Paul Charlton of the Society of Scottish Artists who have asked SSA artists to respond to a piece of 'surreal' text they have created, in the same vein as the original 1920s game. Come and see how this 'creative game' plays out...

ON AT DUNFERMLINE
CARNEGIE LIBRARY
& GALLERIES

Opening in Spring 2017, the much anticipated Dunfermline Carnegie Library & Galleries will incorporate a spectacular new museum in the heart of Dunfermline's Heritage Quarter. Award winning Richard Murphy Architects have designed a unique extension that links superbly to the world's first Carnegie Library.

Within the new state-of-the-art Galleries, Dunfermline's past will be brought to life. As one of Scotland's former ancient capitals, Dunfermline has both a remarkable royal history and an impressive industrial heritage. Fascinating stories of the town's past will be retold through a series of special films, inspiring interviews, engaging mini computer games and of course our collections. And there's more! The new building will boast a new Local Studies Centre, temporary exhibition galleries, a large modern children's library, a landscaped garden and a café bar with stunning views – providing attractions for everyone to experience and enjoy.
