Welcome

I am delighted to introduce our summer programme where, once again, our programming team have brought to Fife a fantastic selection of music, drama, dance, exhibitions and children's events. Our theatre shows will take you on a roller coaster of emotions from the scary (Death Toll) to the heart-warming (Chaplin). A few of our staff top picks are on the next page and full details of all events throughout the brochure.

You will notice that we have introduced a nominal booking fee which will enable us to continue to bring you the type of cultural highlights you have come to expect from us and details of this can be found on p.47 along with details of how to book.

Our Top Picks

There is a really great line-up of big musical productions this year. As a big fan of musicals I can't wait for Andrew Lloyd Webber's Tell me on a Sunday at Adam Smith Theatre. Mix that with Girls Night OOT at Rothes Halls and the musical adaptation of life and music of Woody Guthrie in Woody Sez at Carnegie Hall and I'll be dancing and singing all summer!

Yvonne Melville, Service Development Team Leader, Libraries (Adults)

I'm thrilled that The Singing Kettle Exhibition will be ON display again after the successful run at the Rothes Halls last year. Kirkcaldy Galleries is always very popular with families over the summer and this exhibition has lots of activities as well as being guaranteed a fun-packed trip down memory lane for any of the Singing Kettle's 50 million+ audiences over the last 30 years!

Gillian Parsons, Programming & Engagement Officer

Two of my passions are reading short stories and going to the theatre and I can't wait to share them both with my son when we go see Leaf by Niggle at Carnegie Hall. This theatre piece based on the J.R.R. Tolkien short story will be fantastic introduction to the theatre for my little guy and a real bonding point for us offering a very entertaining evening.

Niall Walker, Service Development Officer, Libraries (Young People)

I am delighted that the Name a Seat opportunities are coming all four of our theatre venues this Summer! Naming a Seat is a great way to ensure your legacy lives on or to honour someone special in your life. Perhaps it's for celebrating a new arrival to the family, an anniversary or wedding gift or giving someone a unique present that cements your love for them and for the Theatre! Visit your local box office for more information.

Sharron McIntosh, Commercial & Business Development Officer

I always dreamed of becoming a dancer so I'm looking forward to the selection of dance shows coming up this season like Rhythm of the Dance and the return of the ever fabulous Pasha at Rothes Halls and the contemporary visually stunning Breathe at Adam Smith Theatre. I also know that Ballet Lorent is returning this October with Snow White so I will be first in line!

Malcolm Middleton returns to the limelight following a 7 year hiatus after the release of his masterfully crafted album Summer of 13. Siphoning his influences of Pop, Metal and Folk, you're in for a treat as Middleton performs a rare acoustic set at Adam Smith Theatre.

Viking Moses achieves a special balance of warmth and command, with familiar melodies that draws in listeners. Strongly lyrical songs are played out through tunes that flirt with Pop, Soul and Americana, all strung together with a unique pulsing guitar, and by his robust voice, which ebbs from delicate whispers to throaty howls.

Yorkston Thorne Khan is a new project from James Yorkston, Jon Thorne and Suhail Yusuf Khan. This hugely original collaboration has scored great acclaim since the release of their album Everything Sacred in January 2016.

A poignant and uplifting comedy, The Naked Truth is a call to all women, celebrating strength through adversity. DONALD ROBERTSON IS NOT A STAND UP COMEDIAN

Written and performed by Gary McNair
Directed by Gareth Nicholls

Winner of the Scottish Arts Club Award, Edinburgh Fringe

What would you do if everyone in the world hated you? Would you run? Would you fight? Or would you try to make them laugh?

Donald Robertson has got no mates and he isn't funny. But with guidance from his new mentor Gary, he hopes that this is all about to change.

Writer/performer Gary McNair's acclaimed monologue weaves a classic coming-of-age story with a pinpoint deconstruction of the darker side of stand-up comedy.

'McNair weaves in and out of stand-up, confessional musings and pure drama... all this combines to make this a technical tour de force with a whole lot of heart and a must-see.' The Stage

ARILD ANDERSEN TRIO WITH TOMMY SMITH & PAOLO VINACCIA

The fabulous singing tone and exciting articulation of Arild Andersen's double bass playing have made the Norwegian master one of the key figures in European jazz. Chick Corea, Stan Getz, Don Cherry, Sonny Rollins, Pat Metheny and John Scofield are among the giants whose rhythm sections have featured Andersen's magical presence and sure sense of time.

Widely regarded as one of the finest groups currently working in jazz, Andersen's trio with the Scottish saxophone virtuoso Tommy Smith and the sensational Italian drummer Paolo Vinaccia presents music that thrills and moves the listener in equal measure. Drop-dead gorgeous melodies, razor-sharp interaction, urgent rhythms and the hallmark of all great jazz, spontaneous creativity, converge in a live music experience that transcends style and genre and makes an Arild Andersen Trio concert an unmissable event.

PUPPET STATE THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS

LEAF BY NIGGLE

By J.R.R. Tolkien

With a soundtrack composed by Karine Polwart and Michael John McCarthy

Niggle is a painter. Not a very successful one, partly because he has so many other things to do. For some time he has been obsessed with one particular canvas – a curious picture of a tree with a vast landscape stretching out behind it. The painting keeps getting bigger and bigger, but Niggle has a journey to make. He doesn't want to go, but he cannot get out of it...

In 1939 Tolkien was despairing of ever bringing his great work The Lord of the Rings to a conclusion. One morning he woke up with Leaf by Niggle complete in his mind and wrote it down.

Surrounded by ladders, bicycles, easels and heirlooms, Richard Medrington (Jean from The Man Who Planted Trees) recounts Tolkien's miniature masterpiece, with a soundtrack composed by Karine Polwart and Michael John McCarthy.

With thanks to the Tolkien Trust.

Praise for Puppet State Theatre's
The Man Who Planted Trees:

"Expertly put together and extremely entertaining... This is just a wonderful, enchanting piece of theatre." British Theatre Guide

JAMES GRANT

A welcome return visit to Carnegie Hall, after three years away, from the former Love and Money frontman.

This acoustic performance showcases James' Al Green-inflected soul ballads that rub shoulders with radio-friendly rock and contemporary folk classics. Delight in the shimmering melodies and virtuoso solos that he plucks effortlessly from his guitar plus the sweet sorrow of lost love and lasting hope echoed in 'lyrics good enough to be poetry.'

This once wannabe guitar hero, who was also blessed with velvet vocal chords, has grown up to be one of the great Scottish songwriters of recent decades. James has written several hit singles, racked up silver disc sales and created a devoted world-wide fanbase. He has performed or toured with artists as diverse as U2, Nanci Griffiths, Tina Turner, and BB King and continues to write and perform as a solo artist; it is a great pleasure to welcome him to Carnegie Hall this Summer.

"One of Scotland's most gifted songwriters... and what a marvellous singer he is, too, spanning darkly burnished baritone depths and searing soulful intensity." Scotsman

THE GLASGOW BOYS A SPIRIT OF REBELLION

28 May – 4 September | Free

Linked by friendship and a shared desire to rebel against the artistic traditions of late 19th century Scotland, the Glasgow Boys became one of the most significant groups of painters working in Britain at that time. A loose association of around 20 artists, many of them went on to enjoy critical acclaim and commercial success, both at home and abroad.

The exhibition looks at the evolving style of the Glasgow Boys and their impact on the art world. Included are works from our collection by leading members of the group and many others associated with it, including Arthur Melville, John Lavery, E A Hornel, George Henry, James Guthrie, Joseph Crawhall, E A Walton, Alexander Roche and Thomas Corsan Morton.
