Welcome

I'm delighted to present Fife Cultural Trust's What's ON programme for Spring 2017 – and what an exciting programme it is! The new Dunfermline Carnegie Library & Galleries is set to open in May, and we have a fantastic season of music, drama, comedy, children's shows, cinema, visual art, museum exhibitions and events lined up across the region.

I'm personally really looking forward to the new Tae Sup Wi' a Fifer performances as well as Rapture Theatre and Talking Scarlet Theatre's thrilling dramas at Adam Smith Theatre. I will also be making time to attend much loved favourites on our annual programme: Fife Jazz and Comedy Festivals.

You'll find full event listings on the centre pages, which we'd love you to keep handy and share with your friends. And, if you're digital savvy, why not check into one of our venues on social media, join the conversation or post a selfie?

Speaking of digital, we've also revamped our website for this season to introduce a number of new features, such as the ability to join the library online, read book reviews and recommendations, browse the archives catalogue and check out some of our fascinating museum collections. Go to onfife.com or share your feedback at youtellus.co.uk

In the meantime, we look forward to welcoming you at some of our venues over the coming weeks and months. You might even like to treat a friend or loved-one to one of our new Gift Vouchers, available from our venue Box Offices. There's much to explore. Enjoy browsing!

We look forward to seeing you in 2017.

PRE-THEATRE MEALS

Our theatre cafés are fully licensed and open one hour before performances. We offer pre-theatre meals before many of our shows at a tumtastic £12 for two courses. Just look out for the knife and fork symbol, or ask at the Box Office for a menu. Advanced booking is essential either at the Box Office or online.

Donated by... A gift for... In memory... Celebrating...

Naming a Seat is a great way to make sure your legacy lives on or to honour someone special in your life. Perhaps you'd like to celebrate a new arrival, or present a special wedding or anniversary gift, for example. Whatever the reason, Naming a Seat is a great way to cement your love for them and the theatre.

By naming a seat for £150, you can be proud to support the arts and culture scene in Fife knowing that your money is being reinvested into Fife Cultural Trust, so future generations can enjoy the theatre just as much and for years to come. For £250 we can offer two seats side by side so that you are never too far away from your loved one.

Our Top Picks

For the second year running, the Gilded Balloon is absolutely delighted to be collaborating with Fife Cultural Trust and Go Glenrothes to programme That's Fife, a dazzling and diverse line-up of comedy, theatre, music and magic! From the powerful and compelling autobiographical play Careful, starring Scottish icon Horse McDonald, and the hysterical comedy of the Burnistoun boys in Uncles, to the utterly spellbinding Champions of Magic - That's Fife is bigger, bolder, and better than ever before, and we can't wait for you to come along and see what wonders we have on!

Karen Koren, Gilded Balloon

THAT'S FIFE!
FESTIVAL

I am really looking forward to the Ethics and Aesthetics exhibition at St Andrews Museum which starts in early March. Postgraduate students at St Andrews University will be featuring fascinating objects from all over the world including the Americas, Africa, Asia and Oceania.

There are so many exciting shows happening in this brochure, I feel spoilt for choice. If you want to treat a loved one with the gift of theatre then why not buy a Gift Voucher from our box office? Gift Vouchers can be redeemed across a number of venues, shows, events and pre theatre meals. They make perfect gifts for Christmas, birthdays and other celebrations.

Having worked for the past 3 years to help research and produce the displays, graphics and multimedia content for DCLG, it is so exciting to now watch everything coming together! The building is an amazing and beautiful space that complements the original Carnegie Library perfectly; the new children's zone with its garden, and the spacious local history 'Reading Room' are such great resources, and I hope that all of Dunfermline's people will enjoy the museum displays and feel proud of their town when they read its story! It has been an incredible honour to be involved in giving Dunfermline a Museum befitting its centuries of history, and I can't wait for the doors to open in May!

Lesley McNaughton, Research & Activities Assistant

It's so exciting that the theatre production of The Tiger Who Came To Tea is coming to Rothes Halls. The book is an absolute classic! I can remember it being read to me as a child and then reading it to my kids not so long ago. Judith Kerr's illustrations and story are timeless and it'll be amazing to see the theatre production bring the book to life for families visiting the Rothes Halls.

National Theatre Live

THU 12 JANUARY | 7PM | 12A | ENCORE (REPEAT SCREENING)

NT LIVE: NO MAN'S LAND

Following their hit run on Broadway, Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End stage in Harold Pinter's No Man's Land, broadcast live from Wyndham's Theatre in London. One summer's evening, two ageing writers, Hirst and Spooner, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst's nearby stately home. As the pair become increasingly inebriated – and their stories increasingly unbelievable – the lively conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the return home of two sinister young men.

THU 2 FEBRUARY | 7PM | 12A

NT LIVE: AMADEUS

Lucian Msamati (Luther, Game of Thrones, NT Live: The Comedy of Errors) plays Salieri in Peter Shaffer's iconic play – broadcast live from the National Theatre, and with live orchestral accompaniment by Southbank Sinfonia. Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, a rowdy young prodigy, arrives in Vienna, the music capital of the world – and he's determined to make a splash. Awestruck by his genius, court composer Antonio Salieri has the power to promote his talent or destroy his name. Seized by obsessive jealousy he begins a war with Mozart, with music, and ultimately, with God.

THU 16 FEBRUARY | 7PM | 12A

NT LIVE: SAINT JOAN

Bernard Shaw's classic play follows the life and trial of a young country girl who declares a bloody mission to drive the English from France. As one of the first Protestants and nationalists, she threatens the very fabric of the feudal society and the Catholic Church across Europe.

THU 16 MARCH | 7PM | 12A | ENCORE (REPEAT SCREENING)

NT LIVE: HEDDA GABLER

Hedda and Tesman have just returned from their honeymoon and the relationship is already in trouble. Trapped but determined, Hedda tries to control those around her, only to see her own world unravel. Tony Award-winning director Ivo van Hove (A View from the Bridge at the Young Vic Theatre) returns to National Theatre Live screens with a modern production of Ibsen's masterpiece. Ruth Wilson (Luther, The Affair, Jane Eyre) plays the title role in a new version by Patrick Marber (Notes on a Scandal, Closer).

THU 13 APRIL | 7PM | CERT TBC | ENCORE (REPEAT SCREENING)

NT LIVE: TWELFTH NIGHT

Tamsin Greig is Malvolia in a new twist on Shakespeare's classic comedy of mistaken identity. A ship is wrecked on the rocks and Viola is washed ashore but her twin brother Sebastian is lost. Determined to survive on her own, she steps out to explore a new land. So begins a whirlwind of mistaken identity and unrequited love. Simon Godwin (NT Live: Man and Superman, NT Live: The Beaux' Stratagem) directs this joyous new production.

STRICTLY MURDER

by Brian Clemens

It's April 1939! An English couple, Peter and Suzy, are living in Provence in idyllic isolation far away from the rumblings of the coming war. Their peace is shattered from within when Suzy discovers she has been betrayed and Peter is not the man he claims to be. Suzy's life is thrown into turmoil as the possibility arises that Peter may in fact be a ruthless killer on the run. Then a Scotland Yard detective arrives and events become even more complicated and frightening...

Lies, subterfuge and murder make this fast-moving thriller a dark and disturbing roller coaster of bluff and double bluff.

Cast includes:

Brian Capron (Coronation Street),
Gary Turner (Emmerdale),
Anna Brecon (Emmerdale)
and Marcus Hutton (Brookside).

“What a play. It’s certainly one of the best murder mysteries I’ve seen and grips you by the throat from start to finish... the plot is full of twists and turns...” The Stage

BARBARA DICKSON UK TOUR 2017

Multi-million selling recording artist Barbara Dickson, with her accomplished band, returns to Carnegie Hall to perform a wonderful range of material including: The Caravan Song, Another Suitcase in Another Hall plus lots more.

From the Scottish folk scene of the 1960s to the Royal Albert Hall in London, Barbara has captivated people with her soulful renditions of her native Scotland to working-class theatre roles where her personal background translates emotion with anything she touches. The late Gerry Rafferty once said that her version of The Right Moment was his favourite cover of any song he'd written and that she chooses songs like jewellery.

THE MANFREDS HITS, JAZZ & BLUES TOUR 2017

The '60s group Manfred Mann is considered one of the finest and most respected bands from their era. With an undercurrent of jazz and R&B, their numerous hits were an unusual combination of playing style and substance.

As a result, their records have a timeless quality and some 55 years on, The Manfreds, with original 'front man' Paul Jones, will be performing many of their hits, including Do Wah Diddy Diddy, one of the most popular and instantly recognisable songs of the '60s. This classic is still the biggest audience pleaser at their concerts along with a mix of Jazz and Blues tracks from some of their best known albums.

Paul Jones, with his unique harmonica sound, will be joined by Mike Hugg on keyboards, Tom McGuinness on lead guitar, Rob Townsend on drums, Marcus Cliffe on bass guitar and Simon Currie on saxophone/flute.

CLYDEBUILT PUPPET THEATRE PRESENTS

DINOSAUR DETECTIVES

age 5+

As the Dinosaur Detectives weave their way through the audience looking for clues about the past, they discover a secret doorway. Inside, there are a number of cases and these cases contain the stories of people who discovered dinosaur bones in Victorian times. The Dinosaur Detectives follow a fascinating journey based on the first fossil finds of Mary Anning, William Buckland and Gideon Mantell, whose discoveries changed the face of history.

A performance of rod puppets, shadow play and large scale projections shows the fascination, fun and the conflict that surrounds the search for "Dinosaurs". At the end of the show the audience can handle fossils including real bones and dinosaur pool!

THE GARTH BROOKS STORY! TREVOR SMITH & FRIENDS IN LOW PLACES

The Garth Brooks Story pays tribute to the biggest selling solo artist of the '90s and country music legend Garth Brooks! Trevor and his eight-piece band perform live all of Garth's greatest hits including Baton Rouge, The Dance, If Tomorrow Never Comes, Standing Outside The Fire, Thunder Rolls and many more as they take the audience on a journey through all of the pinnacle moments of Garth's music career to date with their spectacular stage show. Trevor Smith has been described as one of the few singers who still understands the importance of true showmanship and he delivers every song with the same passion and understanding of the lyrics as Garth himself.

"Trevor Smith and his band are by far the closest thing I have witnessed to Garth Brooks. I thoroughly enjoyed every moment of the show and didn't want it to end! There was something in it for everyone - Brooks fan or not! Fantastic fantastic fantastic!!!"

'Each and Every' is the second showing of a two-part exhibition which features a selection of works by 13 graduating photography students from Nanyang Technological and Edinburgh Napier Universities.

MON 23 JANUARY – FRI 3 MARCH | LOCHGELLY CENTRE

George Beckwith – an Industrial Journey Through Fife

All the artwork shown by George Beckwith is for sale on a 'last chance' basis. George has decided to retire so this will be his last display of work available to buy.

TUES 30 MAY – FRI 28 JULY | ROTHES HALLS

Coast Along by Scott Hunter

This exhibition features film photography taken along The Fife Coastal Path and displayed as Japanese scrolls. With a style that has been described as "poetic", Scott Hunter's work gives particular attention to the sequencing of images as he gently explores themes including transience, femininity and mortality. By combining traditional and contemporary printing practices, these delicate works are designed to blur the lines between analogue and digital photography.

SAT 27 MAY – MON 10 JULY | ROTHES HALLS

Subliminal Tones by Ross Nicholson

Rosyth-based photographer Ross Nicholson's series of landscape and architectural images, 'Subliminal Tones', are all created in Scotland. Through observation of the scene and the use of long exposure, he creates minimalist images making visible subliminal monochromatic tones, not seen by the eye. The result is striking smoothness, calm running waters and flowing clouds with beautiful focal points in between.

MON 27 MARCH – SUN 19 MAY | LOCHGELLY CENTRE

Digitalis by Georgeana Parsons

This is an exhibition of digitally manipulated auto portraiture images by Brighton-based photographer Georgeana Parsons. It features multifaceted images which offer a glimpse into surreal alternative realities, reminiscent of a dream state Parsons' work is a hybrid of photography and digital manipulation pushing the boundaries of how the medium is perceived beyond the simple representation of reality.

MON 20 MARCH – FRI 19 MAY | ROTHES HALLS

A Retrospective View of the Photographs of the Late Aase Goldsmith

Aase Goldsmith's work comprised both documentary and art photography. Her documentary work principally portrayed live and living in North East Fife at the turn of the millennium, while Aase's artwork is a 'visual storytelling' based on Norse myths. The stories, however, are universal and pertinent to all cultures. The work has been exhibited in many countries and consists of three sections: a range of documentary work in the lower foyer gallery; selections from various art projects within FifeSpace, and the inaugural exhibition, 'Wild Woods and Old Wives Tales' in the FotoSpace gallery. The title of the exhibition is a quotation from Bertolt Brecht: "Never go forwards without first looking back to check the direction."

A NIGHT WITH ELLA

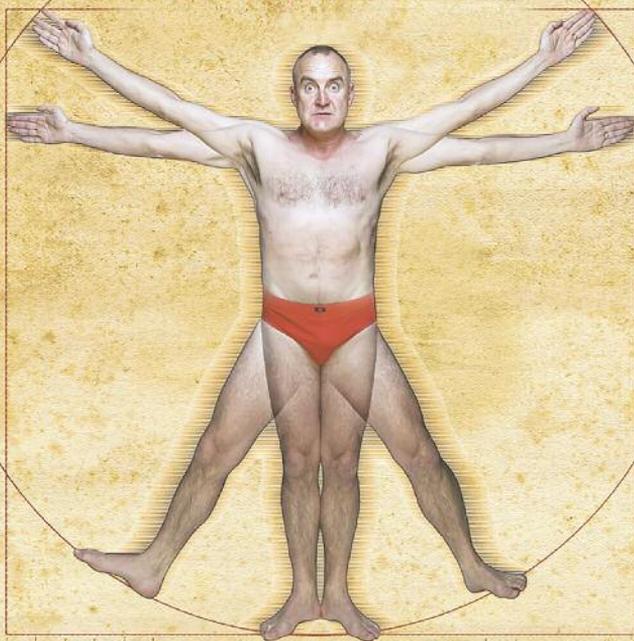

Seonaid Aitken celebrates the songs of Ella Fitzgerald in her centenary year with The Groove Merchant Big Band

Ella Fitzgerald was the greatest vocalist the jazz world has ever heard. Her extraordinary diction, timing, sense of swing and all round joie de vivre meant that her versions of hundreds of great songs were the definitive ones. The songbooks of Cole Porter, Harold Arlen, Rogers and Hart, Irving Berlin, and George Gershwin had no finer interpreter. In today's cluttered world, the beauty of hearing these great songs performed with the same clarity and freshness is an unalloyed pleasure. Seonaid Aitken is the perfect one to celebrate Ella and the songs she made famous. Seonaid fronts the Big Band that's turning all the critics' heads.

LESLIE AMATEUR DRAMA CLUB PRESENTS

PYGMALION

by Bernard Shaw

Henry Higgins vows that he can pass off a cockney guttersnipe as a high society lady in just six months, but Eliza Doolittle only wants to learn to speak well enough to get a job as a lady in a flower shop. Higgins quickly finds that it is easier to change speech patterns than language or attitudes, but who will ultimately teach whom?

Join Leslie Amateur Drama Club, which brought you last year's sell out production of The Steamie, on a journey to early 20th Century London for a delicious lesson in manners, morality and social mores.

RUSSELL KANE: RIGHT MAN, WRONG AGE

Are you 16-years-old, yet feel 21? Are you 40, but tragically faking 25? Or maybe you're full-on 80 years, with the heart of three oxen. Don't worry, this is normal. No one is ever the 'right' age - it's the beauty and the curse of being a real person. In this brand new show, Russell Kane unleashes another blisteringly-funny, award-winning stand-up performance about growing up and growing down.

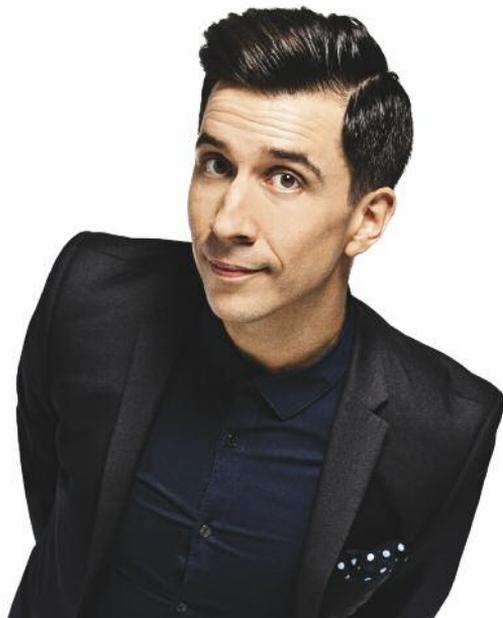

Multi-award winning comedian, presenter, actor, author and scriptwriter, Russell Kane is best known as the host of three series of BBC3's Live At The Electric, regular appearances on BBC1's Live At Apollo, BBC3's Unzipped, ITV2's Celebrity Juice and I'm A Celebrity Get Me Out of Here! Now! Most recently, Russell travelled the world with You Tube stars filming the new survival programme, Stupid Man, Smart Phone, which is available on BBC iPlayer.

KING KING

Having scored three radio hit singles on Planet Rock with the songs Crazy, Hurricane, and most recently, Rush Hour, King King received a nomination for Best New Band at the 2015 Classic Rock Awards. King King followed up with an UK arena tour supporting Thunder that highlighted at a packed concert at London's Wembley Arena, and in the process, won them over a raft of new fans. The band's 2015 album, Reaching For The Light, was voted #1 album by Blues Rock Review. In 2014, King King won a total of five 2014 British Blues Awards, including Best Album and Best Band. The nods came from BBC Radio 2 presenter Paul Jones to Classic Rock's The Blues magazine. Their support slot on John Mayall's 2014 UK tour pushed the band to another level.

The band consists of Alan Nimmo (vocals, guitar), Lindsay Coulson (bass), Wayne Proctor (drums) and Bob Friezema (keyboards). Today, King King are, without a shadow of a doubt, the UK's hottest blues rock band and are going from strength to strength.

SPAN

UNTIL 26 FEBRUARY
DAILY | FREE ADMISSION

The Queensferry Crossing is fast nearing completion – so what better time than now to celebrate the three iconic bridges across the Forth estuary? This two-part exhibition mixes amazing historic images with family-friendly, hands-on fun. Budding young engineers can try out a giant snakes and ladders game, dressing-up costumes and bridge building activities.

The second part of the display features the stunning work of artist Kate Downie RSA. Based in Scotland, Kate has exhibited her work extensively in the UK and internationally and in 2014 was 'Artist in Residence' for the Forth Road Bridge to celebrate its 50th anniversary.

MOMENTS IN TIME

Moments in Time is a series of free, relaxed sessions specifically designed to provide those living with dementia an opportunity to revisit a time in their lives. Over a cup of tea and biscuits stories, poems, photographs and music will be used to transport those attending to their own moment in time.

The sessions are also a great way for those living with dementia and their partners, family and friends to meet others in similar situations to themselves in a welcoming atmosphere.

Moments in Time takes place at Kirkcaldy Galleries on the following dates between 2 – 3pm:

THURS 19 JANUARY	What Scotland means to me
THURS 16 FEBRUARY	Childhood Favourites
THURS 16 MARCH	It's a funny old world

JASLEEN KAUR

UNTIL 25 FEBRUARY, OPEN WED - SAT, 10.30AM - 4PM | FREE ADMISSION

Presented by Fife Contemporary Art & Craft as part of their 10th Anniversary season, this is the first solo exhibition by Scottish-Indian artist Jasleen Kaur, currently based in London. Originally studying jewellery, she was awarded the Jerwood Makers Open in 2015. She is, however, not easily categorised as a craft artist since her practice now involves making through a range of media more usually identified with visual art.

The exhibition will feature short films and sculptural works exploring the artist's dual heritage. On 17 February a symposium Thinking, Making + Matter will encourage discussion around the relationships between visual art, craft and design. On 18 February the artist will lead a family workshop.

For information on the events organised to accompany the exhibition please check on www.fcac.co.uk and at the museum.

ETHICS AND AESTHETICS LIVING IN A MATERIAL WORLD

11 MARCH - 3 JUNE | FREE ADMISSION CLOSED PUBLIC HOLIDAY MONDAY 1 MAY
UNTIL 31 MARCH WED - SAT 10.30AM - 4PM, FROM 1 APRIL MON - SAT 10.30AM - 4PM

Using objects from our ethnographic collections, the exhibition explores hidden meanings behind everyday objects, such as jewellery, clothing and domestic items. Ethnography is the study of people and cultures, and the objects on display span centuries and continents - from South American pottery and beaded African jewellery, to Chinese porcelain and carved ivory figures from Japan. The exhibition focuses on design but also looks at some of the ethical issues surrounding the production, acquisition and display of these objects.

Keep an eye out for events and activities linked to the exhibition.

DUNFERMLINE'S NEWEST LANDMARK OPENING MAY 2017

Set to open in May 2017, Dunfermline Carnegie Library & Galleries is not only the town's newest landmark but also a welcome addition to Scotland's cultural offering that's destined to bring new visitors – both young and old – to the Kingdom of Fife.

This spectacular extension links superbly to the world's first Carnegie Library and provides attractions for everyone to experience and enjoy: including a new museum, exhibition galleries, local studies centre, a large modern children's library and a mezzanine café with stunning views over the landscaped garden to Dunfermline Abbey and the Heritage Quarter.

As one of Scotland's former ancient capitals, Dunfermline has both a remarkable royal history and an impressive industrial heritage. Dunfermline's past will be brought to life in the new museum with fascinating stories retold through a series of special films, inspiring interviews, engaging computer games and, of course, our collections.
